WINDSOR HAPPENINGS AROUND TOWN JULY 2016

A BIG "Thank You" to all the volunteers for the city-wide Clean-up on June 11th. Two dumpsters were filled plus numerous appliances, electronics, & old tires taken out of our neighborhoods. Special thanks to Dean Hite for organizing and seeing it through and to Linn & Linda Voris for spending their 49th wedding anniversary collecting trash. Whatever your contribution, Thanks for making a difference for our town!

PICNIC IN THE PARK

Smyser Christian church is hosting Picnic in Park. Come join us for fellowship and dinner. July 6 4:30-6:30 & July 13 5:00-6:30.

Cooking Classes

Offering FREE cooking classes at Windsor Grade School on the following days: July 5,12,19,26. classes begin at 12pm and run through 2 pm. For more details you can look at the school website or school FB page.

YARD OF THE MONTH

June yard of the month winners are Lee & Liz Slater. CONGRATULATIONS! The Competition is on– is your yard looking it's best? Nominations can be given to Linda Voris at City Hall 459-2291 or Marci Croy

W.H.A.T. has just printed a new historic down town city walking tour brochure. Thanks to Carol Spencer and Jenny Biggs for many hours of research. Copies are available in area businesses.

Harvest Picnic Time is fast approaching! We challenge you as you walk around town to carry a bag and pick up any unsightly trash, pull some weeds, & encourage a neighbor as we become cleaner and neater -making all of us look better

F.L.I.P & W.H.A.T. hosted a golf outing at Fox Prairie on June 12th. Lots of fun which benefitted both the Findlay and Windsor Civic Improvement Projects.
